PENNY

He was there in the summer house
I saw him

JANE

But, my dear, that's impossible
You know that

PENNY

I know what I saw, and I saw him
Just as plain as the nose on my face
You can say what you will
It's as simple as this
He was there in a chair and I saw him

GERARD

Perhaps I should give you a sedative
In the morning you'll wake up
And all will be right
As a doctor, I think it's imperative
That you sleep undisturbed
For the rest of the night

PENNY

Who are you?

JANE

It's a friend of your father
Le Dr. Gerard

PENNY

Father!

JANE

He's gone, dear

PENNY

Yes, that's what you said
But I saw him
My father is dead

He was dead in the summer house
I saw him
I was there, and I spoke to him

JANE

But, Penny...

PENNY

I know what you think, but I saw him
It's a vision I cannot erase
It's a fact you should not be
So quick to dismiss
He was there in a chair
And I saw him

JANE

Penny, please—you are making a spectacle
And what you are saying is far-fetched at best

PENNY

Then go with me now
If you're skeptical
You may put everything that I've said
To the test
Where's my chair?

JANE

Still in the pool
We'll retrieve it tomorrow

PENNY

Robert!
It seems I am bound to the bed
Would you carry me out to the shed?

ROBERT

Yes, Miss Penny

PENNY

Go on—Open it

ROBERT

But...it's always kept locked

PENNY

But it was open

JANE

It's always locked, Penny.

PENNY

There was a candle...

JANE

There's no need for a candle here, Penny

PENNY

Take me back now
