

THE ABCs OF HALLOWEEN (1 of 3)

Copyright © John Thomas Oaks, Caliora Music Publishing, ASCAP

A is for all the awful apparitions

B is for the beastly conditions

In the air

On the night of the year you'd better beware

It'll curl your hair

When you C a crew of decapitated corpses

Comin' for you on a herd of horses

Clawin' and screamin' and callin' your name

Take a lesson from Ichabod Crane

And get outa Dodge while you got your head

Don't try to make friends with the living dead

Cause "D" is for the death they're dealin'

Diabolical deeds in the land of the livin'

It's dangerous

To be out on your own on a night like this

E is for all the eerie noises

Especially all the evil voices

You'll be hearin' in your closet on the thirty-first

But wait a minute—You ain't heard the worst

F is for fear

And I'm talkin' about bone-shatterin', mind-blowin' fear

The kinda fear that makes your sanity disappear

It ain't funny, but it's a fact

If you see a ghost, you're liable to have a heart attack

It'll drive you up a wall

But that ain't all

There's gremlins, goblins and ghouls

They hide in the rocks and wait for fools

To pass their way so they can eat 'em

I've seen it happen, and you can't beat 'em

You can run, but you can't hide

And that reminds me—speakin' of Hyde,

I heard of a guy with the very same name

I'm tellin' you, this guy's insane

If you see him on the street, you better call him Mister

Cause if you don't, he might steal your sister

If all this talk makes you wanna scream

I'm warnin' you

It's the ABCs of Halloween

THE ABCs OF HALLOWEEN (2 of 3)

Copyright © John Thomas Oaks, Caliora Music Publishing, ASCAP

I is for the invasion of the aliens from outer space

J is for Jack—Springheel Jack

He's a maniac who jumps over graves

K is for every killer

Who's ever killed an innocent kid like you

L is for leeches and every bloodsucker

I'm tellin' you, it's like a zoo

When you think about all the things that can getcha

It's enough to make you wanna hitch a

Ride to another planet

M is for the monster who began it

We'll talk about him when we get to S

What's his name? I think you can guess.

Meanwhile, N is for all the new agers

Man, these people have got a major

Monster down inside their heart

One day, it's gonna tear 'em apart

O is for the octopus

Or squid

Or whatever-the-heck-it-was

That wrapped itself around the ship

Of Captain Nemo in that Disney flick

The one where they went down in the sea

Well, under the sea is not for me

I've seen too many camera shots

Of black lagoons and Scottish lochs

P is for the pirate ships

That drift among the ocean mists

And house the ghosts of rugged thieves

And captains with parrots on their sleeves

Q is for a New York night in Queens

And that's the last place I'd wanna be on Halloween

It's the ABCs of Halloween

THE ABCs OF HALLOWEEN (3 of 3)

Copyright © John Thomas Oaks, Caliora Music Publishing, ASCAP

R is for rodents, roaches and rats
Rats as big as alley cats
S is for serpent—S is for snake
S is for Satan who's ready to take
Your soul to Hell with all of the sinners
He'll chew you up and have you for dinner
Unless you give your life to Jesus
He's the only one who truly frees us
From all the monsters in our lives
He's come through for me so many times
T is for the troll down under the bridge
He thought he'd be real tough
He worked out a deal
To make a meal
Outa Great Big Billy Goat Gruff
Well, you know the story—he learned his lesson
And now we're down to "U"
You and your mothers and fathers and brothers
And sisters and cousins and grandparents, too
Sometimes we can be so mean
We put all the monsters to shame
We rant and rave and misbehave
And call each other names
V is for Vampire, and just like him
We bleed each other dry
We change our moods just like the Wolfman
Whenever he sees a full moon in the sky
Why?
We need to change
We need to learn to love instead of hate
I'd rather be called an angel than a devil any day
So whaddaya say?
Let's make this Halloween a time of cheer
Instead of fear
Gather all your loved ones near
Carve a pumpkin—make it scream
Hang a candy apple from a string

It's the ABCs of Halloween